ALL ABOARD...

The Polar Bears are back with another adventure and this time they are off on their holidays. What could go wrong? Join the very lovable but slightly hapless duo as they set off on their holiday adventures. Will they ever reach their destination? Or are they just going around in circles?

Have your ticket ready, find your seat, fasten your seatbelt and anchors aweigh – take off and go, go, go!

Directed by Lee Lyford with co-creators and performers Ivor MacAskill and Fiona Manson as the silent and silly furry friends, The Polar Bears Go, Go, Go is a very funny and beguiling show without words for children aged between 2 and 5 years.

With friendship at its heart, this deaf-friendly show explores the joy and confusion of navigating stations, airports and suitcases, and realising that home has to more to offer than you imagined.

Combining exquisite physical humour and clowning with vivid storytelling, the bungling pair find themselves in all sorts of hilarious travel-related situations. Sometimes a holiday is all about the journey, not the destination...

“The Polar Bears are silly and childish, but that’s really a compliment...Fiona Manson and Ivor MacAskill, who created and play them, know exactly what will connect with and please them...They were having a good time—and from the audience’s delighted reaction so were all those who came to see them” British Theatre Guide, April 2019

“Entertaining and enjoyable third instalment of the polar bear adventure show for young children”
